

Nihill Glides To Course Record On 9.9-mile Moosehorn Course

ROXBURY – Taft School standout Joey Nihill of Southbury posted a course record on the grueling 9.9-mile Moosehorn course.

He covered the Roxbury Road Runners Club event in 1-hour, 1-minute and 35 seconds – a 6:33 per mile pace – to annex his second straight victory in the weekly series.

The course included a trip along the uphill stretches on Moosehorn Road and Booth Road.

Amy Daveluy captured the female banner, placing ninth overall in the Saturday, June 5, race with a 1:34.26 clocking.

The series will resume with a 5.7-mile race on Saturday, June 12, at 8:30 a.m. that will include a trip a long a jeep trail.

Runners can enter via the $25 season membership. If they have a timing chip and want to utilize the weekly waiver, the charge is $2. If they don't have a chip the cost is $5 after they complete the weekly waiver form. Youth runners can participate for free after completing the weekly waiver.

All runners should complete the online registration form through the link posted at www.roxburyraces.net.
