Sheldon Shines At Roxbury Mile

ROXBURY – Two-time season champion Jeff Sheldon easily earned the bouquet of orchids at the Roxbury Mile I, covering the two loops in 6-minutes, 4-seconds.

Sheldon, 42, of Southbury annexed his fourth win this year at the weekly Roxbury Road Runners Club series.

Kateri Danay garnered her seventh win in the women's division. Danay, 24, of Waterbury placed eighth overall at the Saturday, May 28, event with a 6:59 clocking.

The runners will do the Roxbury Mile II on Saturday, September 3, over the same route through the Everett B. Hurlburt Community Park and parts of Rocky Mountain Road and Apple Lane.

The series will resume on Saturday, June 4, at 8:30 a.m. with the 9.9-mile Moosehorn course.

Runners can compete through the $25 season membership. They also can participate by completing the weekly waiver form. If they have a timing chip the cost is $2. If they do not have a timing chip there is a $5 fee. Youth runners can compete for free after completing the weekly waiver form.

The races, which are sanctioned by the Roxbury Recreation Commission, start and finish near the Everett B. Hurlburt Community Park at 18 Apple Lane.
